

I had a problem with my skin, I have been everywhere, GPs, specialists, professors, but the only answer I got is "sorry we don't know, until I searched the net and found you. It was miserable for me to leave with such large red spots that pop out all over my body when I wake up each morning for over year and half. You were the only doctor that explained clearly what was happening to me and with the help of my lord Jesus and you I was able to heal.

Thanks so much for everything and keep on going in the lord's name.
